

GRACE WILL SPEAK FOR YOU

“Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldst take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger?” Ruth 2:10 (KJV) today, the fifth day of the year, I come to declare over your life that Tgrace will speak for you. One of the tragedies of human race is our attempt to get the goodness of God by personal effort. God knew that man could not win by his own effort and so He gave us Jesus.

Jesus came, lived and died and not only that rose again and gave all power to us so that we can live by grace and not by works. I dare you to just attempt to keep the 10 commandments for one day and see how badly you fail because if you miss it in one, you miss it in all. That was why Jesus came and opened the door of grace to us.

Grace as been rightly defined as God's Riches At Christ's Expense. Jesus paid the full price so that you and I do not have to work anymore but we walk in grace. In the scripture above Ruth, the Moabitess, who came back with her mother in law, Naomi decided to go and find food for both of them. She knew she did not plant anything, so she did not plan to reap. Her plan was to pick from the drop-outs from the hands of the reapers but when she got there, the unusual happened, GRACE spoke for her. A man she never knew, a man who she never got introduced to, showed her so much favour she fell on her face knowing that it was completely undeserved – that is my prayer for you that from today, the finished work of Calvary will open you to so much grace that you will fall on your face in appreciation and those who have hitherto mocked, laughed and jeered will turn around to rejoice with you.

You might have been called a stranger where you are today, but because the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof; grace will reach out to you in Jesus' name.
